January 2016
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Heckscher Museum of Art Long Island Biennial
Call for Entries
February 1, 2016 through April 30, 2016

Huntington, NY – The Heckscher Museum of Art is accepting entries for the Long Island Biennial. Professional visual artists over the age of 18 who live in Nassau and Suffolk Counties may submit entries for the Biennial until April 30, 2016.

Inaugurated in 2010, the Long Island Biennial is a juried competition offering artists an opportunity to show their work to a broader public. Long Island has long been the home of many notable artists and an ongoing source for their inspiration.

This year's jurors are Lori Bookstein, President, Lori Bookstein Fine Art, New York City; Seung Lee, Professor of Art, Director of Fine Arts and Graduate Studies, LIU Post; and Christina Mossaides Stassfield, Museum Director and Chief Curator, Guild Hall, East Hampton. Accepted media includes paintings, sculptures, drawings, prints, photographs and mixed media. The application and guidelines for the Long Island Biennial are available on The Heckscher Museum's Website, www.Heckscher.org.

About The Heckscher Museum of Art:

The Heckscher Museum of Art, founded in 1920 by philanthropist August Heckscher, is located in Heckscher Park in Huntington, New York. Through its exhibitions and related programs, the Museum provides inspiring and transformative experiences to encourage a broader understanding of the past and present and to enrich life-long learning. The Museum's collection comprises more than 2,500 works from the 16th to the 21st century, including European and American painting, sculpture, works on paper, and photography.
