

The Earliest Cinema

Prehistory through 1920s:

Talk & Clips with Jim Knush

Friday, January 22 • 7:00 pm

Huntington Public Library • Open to all • Free • Register for HMA828

Learn about humankind's earliest attempts to convey movement through still images and projected images to tell a story. Covered are pre-historic times, 1400s through 1600s, the development of the Cinema as an art form in the 1800s, and up to the early 1920s.

Jim Knusch is a cinema historian, cinematographer, videographer, photographer, and writer for film and video publications, e.g., FilmFax, Psychotronic Video, Film Comment. Currently his articles appear regularly on the website Zombo's Closet.
