"Photography is like magic. In a fraction of a second, a moment can be captured that will never be repeated exactly the same way again. This is especially true when our images include wildlife and nature.

The entries for this show truly showcased the natural beauty and splendor of NY, NJ and CT. In addition to many spectacular images of animals, flowers and breathtaking water scenes, I selected some photographs that include people and man-made structures. This balance between the human and natural worlds fascinates me, and I really look forward to viewing the exhibition on the gallery walls.

I'd like to sincerely thank the Huntington Arts Council for the honor of being the juror for this show, and thank you to all who entered."
