You know it's spring when The Otto Kahn award winners are announced and seven of the Town of Huntington's most talented high school seniors will receive $2,500 scholarships to continue their education in the arts.

New this year is the 2016 Humanitarian Award honoring philanthropist Caroline Monti Saladino of Cold Spring Harbor, President of the Don Monti Memorial Research Foundation.

The following students will be honored and some will perform at Friends of OHEKA's annual Garden Party at OHEKA Castle on Wednesday, June 8th:

Dayna Ambrosio, Northport High School

Dylan DelGiudice, Huntington High School

Aaron Feltman, Huntington High School

Olivia Galante, Northport High School

David Gabriel Lerner, Half Hollow Hills East High School

Emma Kowalchuk, Harborfields High School

Caroline Tonks, Huntington High School

Tickets can be purchased on line at: www.oheka.com (Friends of OHEKA) The 16th annual garden party takes place rain or shine at historic OHEKA Castle in Huntington from 5 to 8 pm. Ticket price includes buffet dinner, hors d'Oeuvres, wine, dessert and entertainment. This year we've added fabulous raffle baskets to the festivities and as always, Gatsby-style attire is welcome.

To date, Friends of OHEKA has raised over $125,000 for deserving students through our yearly GARDEN PARTY-our only fund raiser. Reserve your tickets now and join us for one of the most anticipated galas of the season! For more information, please call: 631-367-2570.
